San Pedro, CA - All roads lead to an upcoming music festival at International Bird Rescue celebrating birds and all the folks that love wildlife.

On Saturday, November 18, 2023 the public is invited to Bird Rescue’s wildlife center in San Pedro. The event runs from 11 AM to 4:30 PM. This is a benefit to support the organization’s ongoing work with wildlife. Tickets cost $20-$55.

The Taking Flight Fall Music Festival is a family-friendly festival, attracting music lovers, art enthusiasts from Southern California. With an impressive line of musical performances, a wide array of carnival activities, delectable food and drinks from local food trucks, this festival promises to be an unforgettable experience for attendees of all ages.
This is the first in-person open house at Bird Rescue’s Los Angeles Wildlife Center since before the COVID-19 pandemic, so we wanted to celebrate BIG!

At the event you’ll learn about the great work that Bird Rescue has done for the last 52 years – including responding to over 250 worldwide oil spills, countless wildlife emergencies, and locally rehabilitating thousands of injured, oiled, and orphaned water birds.

Bird Rescue’s Los Angeles Wildlife Center is located at 3601 S Gaffey St. San Pedro, CA 90731.

About International Bird Rescue

International Bird Rescue is a global conservation organization for birds in a changing world. Since 1971, Bird Rescue has responded to over 250 oil spills and other wildlife emergencies, caring for more than 160,000 birds on six continents. With crisis response centers in San Francisco, Los Angeles, and Anchorage, the organization specializes in emergency preparedness and response, day-to-day aquatic bird care, professional training, and scientific research. Innovations are shared worldwide to inspire the next generation of wildlife specialists. Bird Rescue aims to give a voice to waterbirds through conservation, advocacy, and wildlife literacy that builds empathy and encourages action.
